D2007	TESTING OF PROFICIENCY TESTING SAMPLES CFR(s): 493.801(b)(1) (b)(1) The samples must be examined or tested with the laboratory's regular patient workload by personnel who routinely perform the testing in the laboratory, using the laboratory's routine methods. This STANDARD is not met as evidenced by: . Based on record review and interviews, the laboratory failed to have proficiency testing samples tested by personnel who routinely perform patient testing for five (M1 2024, M2 2024, M3 2024, M1 2025, M2 2025) of five events performed in 2024 and 2025 reviewed. Findings include: 1. An interview on 6/2/25 at 9:52 am with testing personnel #3 (TP3) revealed they had been working at the laboratory for the previous six years. When queried about who performs testing of the proficiency testing specimens, TP3 indicated that TP1 performs all proficiency testing including the testing of the samples and entering the results. TP3 confirmed they had never performed proficiency testing. 2. A review of the laboratory's American Association of Bioanalysis Medical Laboratory Evaluation (AAB-MLE) proficiency testing documentation revealed the following events were performed by testing personnel #1 (TP1) or testing personnel #2 (TP2): a. 2024 AAB-MLE M1 2024, submitted 2/23/24, had hematology, blood gases and chemistry events performed by TP2. b. 2024 AAB-MLE M2 2024, submitted 5/31/24, had hematology, blood gases and chemistry events performed by TP1. c. 2024 AAB-MLE M3 2024, submitted 9/27/24, had hematology, blood gases and chemistry events performed by TP2. d. 2025 AAB-MLE M1 2025, submitted 2/18/25, had hematology, blood gases and chemistry events performed by TP1. e. 2025 AAB-MLE M2 2025, submitted 5/23/25, had hematology, blood gases and chemistry events performed by TP1. 3. An interview on 6/2/25 at 12:05 pm with TP1 revealed TP1's duties include overseeing all laboratory departments and testing personnel in the organization. When queried about how often TP1 performs patient

testing, TP1 stated, "not on a regular basis." When queried about how often TP2, who serves as the manager for the office, performs patient testing, TP1 indicated TP2 is not regularly scheduled to perform testing in the laboratory and that they may perform testing "maybe once or twice a year."
